The Ultimate Bespoke Corporate Day

Your day will begin and conclude with the exceptional hospitality Whatton House has become renowned for, and in between will be filled with the adrenalin of clay shooting and optional activities such as rage buggies, cocktail masterclasses, archery and more all within 2000 acres of Estate land.

Your day will be tailor made by our team to suit your own individual group and is ideal for networking, team building or entertaining clients, friends and family. Our Old Dining Room within Whatton House can seat up to 60 people and is ideal for events, conferences or meetings. The stunning grounds provide an open space for fresh air when a break is needed. You can rest assured that whatever your requirements we will do our very best to cater for all your needs.

Our simulated game days are the perfect introduction for novices making the day fully inclusive no matter your level of expertise. Thrill for the experienced shot is guaranteed whilst still providing a safe friendly environment for the novice to learn and have fun in the hands of our experienced instructors.

A minimum participant number of 20 is required to book your day. Once you and your guests have arrived at Whatton the rest is left to us, you can relax and enjoy your day in our capable safe hands.

Simply get in touch with our team to begin creating your own experience – our many repeat clients prove it will be worth it!
